Location

Middleton Cheney is a highly desirable West Northamptonshire village combining rural charm with exceptional connectivity, located just three miles from Banbury and the M40 (J11).

Ideal for both families and commuters, this thriving community boasts an excellent range of daily amenities - including a co-op with post office, pharmacy, takeaway shops, library, and traditional pubs.

There is a primary and a secondary school in the village and there are several Independent Schools within easy reach including Bloxham School, Tudor Hall and Winchester House.

Residents enjoy the perfect balance of countryside living with the convenience of a five-minute drive to the motorway and rapid rail links to London Marylebone, Oxford and Birmingham from nearby Banbury Station.

Accommodation

Entrance porch, sitting room with fireplace, dining room, spacious kitchen/breakfast room with a range of fitted units and enjoying far reaching views over open countryside, rear porch, three bedrooms, and a family bathroom.

Outside

The property is approached via a gated block paved driveway that leads to the front door, and wraps around the bungalow to the garages, and offers ample parking for multiple vehicles. The mature gardens are enclosed on all sides, and the property enjoys stunning views over open countryside.
