Location

Long Buckby is a thriving village in West Northamptonshire, midway between Northampton and Rugby and 4 miles east of Daventry. It includes the hamlets of Murcott and Buckby Wharf on the Grand Union Canal and is just 2 miles from the M1 (J18).

The village has its own railway station with direct services to London Euston (1.5 hours) and Birmingham New Street (1 hour). Education in the village includes Long Buckby Infant and Junior Schools, an outstanding nursery (Clarecroft), and several childminders. Local secondary options include Guilsborough Academy, Northampton School for Boys and Girls, Lawrence Sheriff, and Rugby High. The area also offers a range of independent schools, such as Spratton Hall, Bilton Grange, Pitsford, Rugby School, Princethorpe College, Quinton House, Northampton High, and Coventry School Foundation.

The village offers a range of shops and services, including a library, pharmacy, artisan bakery, delicatessen, butcher, small supermarkets, and gift shops. Residents can enjoy a variety of restaurants, takeaways, and pubs, while a local gym and numerous sports and community clubs cater to all ages. Long Buckby also benefits from a medical practice, two dental surgeries, three active churches, and a community centre hosting events and activities, giving the village a strong sense of community.

Ground Floor

The property is approached via a glazed entrance door opening into a welcoming hallway, featuring a partially exposed stone wall, staircase rising to the first floor, and useful built-in understairs walk in storage cupboard. A square archway leads through to the sitting room, while a further door provides access to the impressive kitchen/breakfast/family room.

The characterful sitting room enjoys an abundance of natural light from windows to the front and large picture windows overlooking the rear. Features include exposed timber flooring, a window seat, exposed stone walls and a open fireplace creating a the focal point. A door leads through to a versatile office/snug, which benefits from exposed timber flooring, a rear-facing window and radiator.

At the heart of the home is the spacious kitchen/breakfast/family room, offering excellent space for both everyday living and entertaining. Four windows overlook the rear, with an additional window to the side and a stable door providing access outside. Character features include the quarry tiled floor, an exposed stone gable wall and exposed A-frame timbers to the ceiling. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and drawer units complemented by roll-top work surfaces, a one-and-a-half bowl sink with mixer tap and tiled splash backs. There is space for a Rangemaster-style cooker and American-style fridge/freezer, together with plumbing for a dishwasher and washing machine.

First Floor

The first-floor landing features exposed timber flooring, a radiator and Velux window, with doors leading to all bedrooms and the family bathroom.

The primary bedroom enjoys wonderful views over the surrounding countryside and features exposed timber flooring, an exposed oak ceiling beam and an attractive cast-iron fireplace. A paneled door leads to the en-suite, currently utilised as a dressing room/cloakroom with clothes hanging rails and comprising a low-level WC and pedestal wash hand basin.

Bedroom two is another well-proportioned room featuring a rear-facing window and exposed timber flooring, while bedroom three benefits from a rear-facing window, laminate flooring, and radiator. All three bedrooms enjoy delightful views across the rolling countryside and beyond.

The family bathroom is fitted with a three-piece suite comprising a low-level WC, pedestal wash hand basin and paneled bath with shower over, complemented by tiled splash back areas.

Outbuildings and Paddock

A particular feature of the property is the additional land and outbuildings. The property stands within approximately two acres and includes its own paddock together with a detached red brick stable block. Currently arranged as four stables and a tack room. The stable block formerly benefited from planning permission for conversion into a two-bedroom annex; however, this permission lapsed on 10th July. The building may continue to offer potential for conversion, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions and consents.

Outside

Outside, the property is approached through five-bar gates opening onto a sweeping gravel driveway providing ample off-road parking. The formal garden is predominantly laid to lawn. A gravel pathway leads to a generous decked terrace, providing an ideal setting for outdoor furniture, entertaining and enjoying the stunning surrounding countryside views. The oil tank is discreetly located within the garden. The paddocks are separated by post and rail fencing and adjoin open countryside.

An enclosed courtyard is where the brick and stone built stable block is located. There are four stables and a tack room.

A septic tank and soak away are located in the garden.
